COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY JULY 9, 1913.

NUMBER 36

Columbia Team Victorious.

Last Friday, July 4th, the Columbia team journeyed over to Campbells-ville in the big auto to play an exhibition game prior to the gruelling con- tests of the coming week. A good crowd came out to see the game and much excitement was aroused.

During the first six innings of play the game looked doubtful, as Camp- bells-ville was leading by the score of 4-1.

Durning, who started pitching for the locals, was handicapped because of the fact of having to pitch up hill out a hole. At the beginning of the fifth inning "Burley" Young was in- jected into the game by Capt. Rosen- field at the psychological moment, and Campbells-ville's run getting was brought to a close immediately.

One lonely hit was all that could be garnered off of his delivery, and that was of the scotch order.

The one surprising feature of the game was the good exhibition of ball put up by the substitutes. The fea- ture of the game out side the gilt-edge pitching of Burley, was the all around playing of Grimes, Vaughan and Sandidge, the latter securing four hits out of five trips to the plate, and four stolen bases out of as many at- tempts.

To say the least Mgr. Reed is well pleased with his ball tossers and to be very conservative he thinks the team is going to play nice innings of consistent ball.

Friday's game instilled new con- fidence into the team and every man is doing good work.

The following is the regular line up and the men to make the trip:

Judd, Tom, 3rd Base,
Vaughan, S. S.,
Judd, Romie, 1st Base,
Rosenfield, C. and Capt.,
Grimes, 2nd Base,
Sandidge, R. F.,
Chandler, C. F.,
Young, P. and R. F.,
Durning, P.,
Warren, P.,
Eubank, Subst.
Lewis, Subst.
Edgar Reed, Mgr.

Bob Nell Killed.

On Saturday afternoon, the 28th ult, Bob Nell, who was a nephew of Mrs. Mary T. Harvey and Capt. Geo. Nell, this place, was killed at a base ball game in Louisville. Bob was the umpire of the game, and a dispute arose between the players, Nell telling them to take notice of the rules, his assailant slipping up behind him, striking him in the head with a bat, re- sulting in death in a very few min- utes.

The dead man was reared here. He leaves a wife and one child.

To Contractors.

The plans and specifications for the new Baptist church, this place, is now in the hands of the Committee, who are ready to receive bids for brick work and carpenter's work. The stone work has been let.

Every body is speculating as to who the Democrats will nominate for county offices on August the 2. We think we have a good idea as to who will compose the ticket, but will not give our opinion, as every man who is run- ning is a good and true Democrat, and it matters not who is selected, the ticket will be satisfactory to the voters, and it will be unanimously supported at the November election.

Mr. G. D. Miller, a merchant at Jamestown, and Miss Emma Wool- dridge, were married at Sewellton, Russell county, Tuesday of last week. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. D. Tarter, of the Methodist church.

Last Tuesday afternoon and Tues- day night good rains fell in several portions of the county. Within two miles of this place, on some farms, the ground was made too wet to plow. It merely sprinkled at Columbia.

Monday was county court, but only a small number of people were in town. The weather being good for farming, only a few of the yeomanry were in Columbia.

All parties owing us old accounts will kindly call and settle same at once. We need the money.
36-11. Flowers & Beck.

Mr. F. R. Winfrey informs The News that Roberts Brothers will be- gin a tent meeting in this town the 10th of this month.

The Russell county Teachers' In- stitute will convene Monday, August 11th. Prof. C. D. Lewis will conduct it.

Narrow Escape.

Last Saturday as Messrs. A. B. and Geo. H. Gowdy, of Campbells-ville, were en route to Columbia, in an au- tomobile, they met with an accident this side of the Cheatham Bridge, near this place. It occurred at the short curve, near the home of Mrs. Sofrona Curd. In going around the curve the machine, for some cause, went over and into the hollow, lodg- ing on a stump. Had it not been for the stump Mr. A. B. Gowdy states that in all probability himself and brother would have been killed. Strange to say neither was hurt and the machine was not damaged. It re- quired a team of horses to get the au- to back on the pike.

High Price Cattle.

Mr. R. F. Paul sold to Mr. R. K. Young three Aberdeen Angus Steers for 7 cents per pound and were weighed up last Saturday. They were yearlings, but brought a neat sum. The above price is the highest ever paid for cattle in this section, and shows the importance of raising high grade cattle. Mr. Paul has a good herd of this noted breed embrac- ing some of the finest individuals found any where. The above were not superb in every particular to sell as breeders so they were handled as beef and payed well. Mr. Young is not an inexperienced dealer, but a trader who knows the worth of cattle as soon as he makes a careful inspec- tion.

A Singular Incident.

Mrs. Luther Conover, who lives two miles out of town, swallowed a needle seven years ago. A few days ago she noticed a hardened cake on her left thigh, giving her a great deal of trouble. A physician was called. He lanced the place, and the needle she swallowed seven years ago was ex- tracted. It was a steel needle with a gold eye.

Died.

Mrs. Frances G. Miller, who was the widow of Jacob Miller, died a few miles from Columbia last Friday night. She was fifty-two years old, an excellent woman and will be great- ly missed. The interment was at Union.

She was a victim of cancer, it being on her breast.

One of the largest, and most pros- perous schools in Kentucky is the Cumberland College, a Baptist institu- tion located at Williamsburg, Ky. Pupils from many parts of the State attend this college, besides patronage is secured from other States. It has a very strong faculty embracing twen- ty teachers, Miss Jennie Wood Gar- nett, of this place, being one of the number.

For Sale.

Three nice cottages, two with six rooms each, one with three rooms, good water and out buildings, lots ad- join. The rental value pays taxes, in- surance and interest on $4,000.

Address H. N. Beauchamp,
Box 222, Campbells-ville, Ky.
Adv.

Mr. Coleman Finn, who lives in Co- lumbia, will be ninety years old if he lives until next October. His general health is good, but his eyesight is very much impaired. He walks down in town nearly every day.

A heavy rain, coming from the South, fell in portions of this county last Wednesday afternoon. Russell's creek, at this place, was out of banks, though only a few drops of rain fell at Columbia.

The Adair county Teachers' Insti- tute will be held in this place, com- mencing the first week in September. It will be conducted by Prof. M. A. Leiper.

The Metcalfe county Teachers' In- stitute was held last week, conducted by Prof. R. R. Moss, of the Lindsey Wilson Training School.

The King of All Laxatives.

For constipation, headaches, indig- estion and dyspepsia, use "Dr. King's New Life Pills." Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says they are "King of laxatives." They are a blessing to all my family and I always keep a box at home. Get a box and get well. Price 25c. Recommended by Paul Drug Co. Ad.

The foundation for the new Baptist church is being put down.

Death of Lee Robinson.

The subject of this writing was born and reared in Columbia and was a son of W. N. and Sallie C. Robinson, and was about forty-four years old.

When quite a young man he was married to Miss Bertha Winfrey, who lived in the upper end of this county, and to them two children were born, a boy and a girl, and they and their mother survive him.

Four or five years ago the family moved from this county to Bay City, Florida, where Mr. Robinson died Monday night of last week, a victim of heart trouble. He is survived by a number of relatives in this town, Mrs. Lou F. Miller being a sister.

Lee Robinson was a good business man, a fine salesman, a gentleman who had many friends, and whose death brought sorrow to his former Columbia associates.

Much sympathy is felt for the wife and children.

Painfully Hurt.

Last Friday night, at the Lebanon Chautauqua, Mrs. Fred Myers, of this place, was painfully hurt in the fol- low manner: She was out in the open, watching the display of fireworks when a sky-rocket took the wrong shoot, struck her across the forehead, cutting a gash several inches in length. The physician who was called closed up the aperture by taking fourteen stitches.

Mrs. Myers was conveyed home Sat- urday and at this writing is getting along nicely.

Shot in the Right Leg.

Last Friday afternoon, in the Fair- play county, Bram Thomas, a man with a family, and one of Cap Lewis, sons got into trouble and Thomas was shot in the right leg above the knee, the boy using a shot-gun loaded with squirrel shot. We are not in- formed as to the cause of the trouble. Dr. Cartwright was called and dressed the wound, and he reports that his patient was not dangerously hurt.

To The Public.

The report that I am making the race for County Superintendent, for the purpose of defeating Prof. Huffaker, is untrue. I am not trying to make any man's race other than my own.

Very Truly,
George Aaron,
Glensfork, Ky.

The Adair County Union Sunday School Convention will be held at Egypt Church on Sunday before the fourth Sunday in this month. A pro- gram will appear in the next week's paper. It is very much desired that every School in the county be repre- sented in the convention. We hope to have one of our state workers with us.

In our last issue the premium list of the Burkesville Fair appeared, but an oversight was made in not heading the list, Burkesville Fair. However, the body of it showed conclusively where the Fair was to be held.

Farm for Sale.

I have a farm of 104 acres situated on Blue Spring Branch, Green county for sale. Good house, good barn etc. Produces well.

Rev. J. S. Chandler preached on the lawn at the Methodist church last Sunday evening, making it more com- fortable for his congregation. He will continue to preach in the open during the hot weather, the services to be- gin promptly at 6:30 p. m. Turn out, every body.

Four year old blooded mare for sale. Sired by Gresham Dare, he by Ches- ter Dare, Dam, Minnie Dulworth.
T. C. Faulkner,
Columbia, Ky.

There was a social at the residence of Mr. Perry Hancock last Saturday night. All the young people in the neighborhood were in attendance and the evening was most delightfully spent, in games and listening to music.

I have a Orex drugget, 10x12, that has never been used, for sale. Price, $8.
Mrs. Bettie Butler.

Mr. J. D. Sharp says that in the Amandville country, Cumberland county, fine rains have fallen, and that the prospect for a bountiful crops is excellent.

How Would It Do?

To live up.
To push things.
To boom your town.
To advertise your business.
To renew your subscription.
To help your fallen brother rise.
To speak kindly of all, evil of none.
To wear a smile instead of a frown.
To take advice as freely as you give it.
To get good yourself and do good to others.
To stand by your town and county and all their interests.
To give every loyal enterprise your help and encouragement.
To speak your appreciative words while your friends can hear them.
To whoop your business to the front and help your competitors to keep up.
To send this paper to your friends that you wish to kindly remember.
To show your interest for your town and county by speaking well of them, standing by them and living for them.

An Announcement.

The marriage of Miss Clara Wil- more and Mr. Paul Sollenberger, of New York, which occurred in Mad- ison, Florida, January the 12th, has just been announced. They will spend the summer in Kentucky on their honeymoon. Next winter Mr. Sollenberger will attend an eastern university, and the bride will con- tinue in charge of the primary de- partment in Madison. In June, 1914, they will remove to Brooklyn, New York, where Mr. Sollenberger will look after his interests in that city.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilmore, of Grady- ville, Ky., and is widely known. The groom received his education in In- diana, having received a degree, with the scholastic honors of his class, from Marvin college.

List.

A three buttoned sack coat, blue with a stripe, size, 37. Lost some where between Mt. Carmel and Cane Valley. Initial, N. M. P., across the inside pocket. Will give liberal re- ward to the finder.

Mont Page.

The dwelling-house, owned and oc- cupied by Mr. Ruel Hutchison, was consumed by fire last Sunday after- noon at three o'clock. Most of the contents were saved. The dwelling was a good one and the loss considera- ble. A small amount of insurance. The origin of the fire was caused by a defective flue.

Foxes Wanted.

Grey Foxes $2.50, Red Foxes $5.00; Minks $6.00 to $8.00 each; Coons $1.25, and express. Send name of your ex- press office in first letter.

W. T. Hodgen,
Ad. Box 232 Campbells-ville, Ky.

The Federal Court of Appeals at Cincinnati, rendered a decision last Monday week, touching the collect- ing of the railroad taxes in Green county. The judgment was that Green county could not collect taxes for private purposes unless the rail- road tax was paid. This puts the county in a bad fix. The case will likely go to the Supreme Court, as we learn from a Green county citizen.

Last Wednesday lightning killed a mare mule for G. M. Rice, valued at $150. It also killed a two-year-old filly for Alvin Humphress, valued at $125.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, on the sixth of June, 1913, the spirit of our beloved sister, Mrs. W. K. Azbill, departed to be with the lord, and

Whereas: In her life here she was a faithful, devoted Christian, and a member of the Christian church at Columbia, Ky., and having always shown her great love for and interest in the church's highest good, and for the Lord's Kingdom throughout the world, having gone with her husband as missionary to Jamaica, the Hawaii Islands and Japan, and

Whereas: She was the efficient pre- siding officer of the Aid Society of the Columbia Christian Church for years. Therefore, Be it resolved:

That the Columbia Church has lost one of its most worthy members. The Aid Society a beloved sister, whose place cannot be filled.

Be it further resolved, that since we miss her, and she cannot return to us, we shall cherish her memory and emulate her virtues and prepare to meet her in the better land.

Be it also resolved, That in our sorrow because of the going forth of our sister, we also rejoice because of the assurance we have in Christ that she was prepared when the summons came.

Be it also resolved, That we extend our sincere sympathy to our Bro. Az- bill, who is left so lonely, and ex- press to our great joy because of his large faith in God and his Christ, who will give to him grace to bear his loneliness till the end shall come, and that we also extend our hearty sympathy to Mr. Paul Azbill, who has lost a Christian mother and to the brothers and sister who are left be- hind.

Be it resolved, That these resolu- tions be sent to the News with a request for publication and a copy be sent our Bro. Azbill, and these resolu- tions be spread upon the records of our church and Aid Society.

Mrs. Z. T. Williams,
Mrs. Robert Rowe,
Committee.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many friends for the kindness and interest man- ifested by them during the illness and death of our brother, John. Often during his sickness he would say: "These people here are the best peo- ple that live. We desire to tender special thanks to cousin Nannie Flowers, for a mother couldn't have done more, and the boys left nothing undone. Words cannot express grate- tude for all the kindness shown by them.
Respt.,
W. T. and C. A. Flowers

Death near Coburg.

Mr. Charley Jarvis, who traveled for the Cumberland Grocery Company, and often made Columbia, died near Coburg, this county, Monday morning at 6 o'clock, a victim of heart trouble. He was about 32 years old and was born and reared in Knox county. His father is a prominent citizen and one time represented Knox county in the Kentucky Legislature.

The Doctors to Meet.

The Adair County Medical Society will meet in Dr. Cartwright's office, Columbia, Ky., on Thursday, July 10, 1913, at ten o'clock, when the fol- lowing program will be disposed of:

W. J. Flowers, Animal Therapy; S. A. Taylor, Articular Rheumatism; H. B. Simpson, Senile Gangrene; W. F. Cartwright, Cholera Infantum; U. L. Taylor, The Length of Human Life.

All the doctors are urged to attend this meeting, and assist in filling with interest the occasion.

S. P. Miller, President,
U. L. Taylor, Secretary.

Another Accident.

Last Saturday night, as Robert Feese, Jr., was returning from Leba- non, in an automobile, an accident occurred on Muldroughs Hill, but it is said to have been no fault of Mr. Feese. A buggy and horse was standing across the pike and it was unobserved by the owner of the machine, and there was a collision. The buggy, horse and machine were all damaged. It is reported here that the owner of the horse and buggy was a drunken man, who was asleep on the side of the pike, not in the vehicle. It was first reported that the horse was killed but that proved a mistake.

FOR SALE:—My safe, reliable, fam- ily horse.
Address,
Mrs. J. R. Crawford,
Winchester, Ky.

No Railroad This Time.

The proposition made by a Mrs. Moore, of Cleveland, Ohio, to build a rail-road from Hodgenville through this town to a point in the Eastern Kentucky coal fields, drew a large crowd in the court-house, last Mon- day. The lady outlined her proposi- tion and answered many questions and finally it was presented in writ- ten form. A committee was appointed to pass on its merits which required but little time and said proposition was returned. One more victory for the conservatives of Adair county.

The autos leave Columbia for Camp- bells-ville on schedule time.

To Timber Men.

I am representing E. R. Spotswood & Son, Lexington, Ky. I want to buy boundaries of timber in Adair and ad- joining counties. Address,
C. M. Herriford,

Public Sale of Farm and Timber.

On Saturday, the 30th day of Aug., at Cane Valley, Adair county, Ky., at 1 o'clock, p. m., or thereabout the heirs of W. B. Sublett, deceased, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, the farm of about 214 acres of land in Green county, Kentuck., about 4 miles west of Cane Valley near the Columbia and Campbells-ville pike, it being the home farm of said W. B. Sublett. There are about 75 acres of this land that is well tim- bered with poplar, white oak, hickory, and ash of the best quality. The poplar, white oak, ash and hickory timber and the land will first be of- fered separately, and then all together and the bid or bids accepted that bring the most money. If the tim- ber is sold separately from the land, the purchaser will be required to remove the same within 12 months from day of sale.

The timber will be sold for cash in hand, if purchased separately from the land. If the land is sold separat- ily one third of purchase price will be required in cash and remainder on easy terms. If land and timber are sold together the value of the timber and one-third for the land to be paid in cash.

This is a fine body of agricultural land, and is well situated, as to roads, churches, schools and in good com- munity and is well watered for pastur- ing stock.

The sellers reserve the right to modify the above terms on or before the day of sale, but if so modified pur- chasers will be notified before or at time of sale.

J. W. Sublett, James T. Sublett,
R. A. Sublett, Ida Bridgewater,
E. J. Kerr, Cordie Bailer.
